

From I-15 exit Cajalco Road. Go east 7 miles to Lake Matthews road. Turn right and go 3.5 miles, climbing to the 2000 foot elevation. At the top you will come to a long straight stretch. You will immediately see stone gates saying Gavilan Springs on your right. You will see a street sign that says Gavilan Springs Ranch Road on your right. Continue past this turn off for 4/10ths of a mile and turn left on Winford Road, a major (unmarked) dirt road. If you get to El Modeno Nursery you have gone too far. Go 2/10ths up Winford Road to its end at the orange groves. Turn right and go to the second left. This is the road into camp. You'll see the Bar H lodgepole sign here.

From I-215 exit Ramona Expressway/Cajalco Road. Travel west and turn left/south on Gavilan Hills Road. Go past the Gavilan Ranch Market to the T intersection sign. Turn right on Lake Matthews Road and go a half mile exactly 1.8 miles to the camp entrance on Winford Road on your right, which is 3/10ths past the El Modeno Nursery. Follow the above directions into camp.

From the 91 Freeway exit La Sierra and go 5 miles south to Cajalco Road. Turn left/east for 3.2 miles to Lake Matthews Road. Turn right/south and follow directions above from the Gavilan Springs landmark.
